The Business Relationship

Please review the following provisions as part of the Charter Partner qualification process.

These provisions describe the intended business relationship and do not replace a signed license agreement.

Independent Contractor Status.

The relationship between TIGERS Success Series and the Charter Partner Licensee is strictly that of independent contracting parties. Nothing in this offer shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, franchise, employment, or agency relationship between the parties.

Business Autonomy.

Charter Partner Licensees acknowledge and agree that they operate a separate and independent business enterprise. The Licensee retains full control over the means, methods, and manner of performing activities under this license. The Licensee is solely responsible for all business expenses, equipment, and operational costs incurred in connection with their business.

Tax and Benefit Responsibility.

The Charter Partner Licensee is solely responsible for the payment of all federal, state, and local taxes, including self-employment taxes, income taxes, and Social Security contributions. The Licensee is not eligible for, nor entitled to participate in, any employee benefit plans, workers' compensation, or unemployment insurance provided by the Licensor.

No Authority to Bind.

The Charter Partner Licensee has no authority to enter into contracts, assume obligations, or make representations on behalf of TIGERS Success Series, and shall not hold themselves out as having the authority to do so.

Acknowledgment

I have read and understand the business relationship provisions above. I understand that final participation is subject to approval and a separate written license agreement.

☐ I acknowledge that I have read and understand these provisions.
